

Calling all Music Students !!

Are you in 6th to 12th grade, living in the five-town Sacopee Valley area, and hoping to attend a music camp or group program this year?

The Saco River Festival Association would like to help make it happen. We are offering tuition assistance through a scholarship program, and invite you to apply, but time is limited.

Please download an application from www.sacoriverfestival.org or pick one up at the Superintendent's office or from your music teacher to submit before March 17th. For more information, contact us at
